French Submarine Sinks Austrian

By The Associated Press

London, Jan. 14.—Copies of correspondence seized from Capt. Franz von Papan, recalled German military attache at Washington, when he reached Palmouth on his way to Germany, have been turned over to the American embassy for transmission to the state department. They show that Captain Von Papan made frequent payments to persons charged with the responsibility for blowing up munitions works and bridges in the United States.

One entry shows that Captain Von Papan gave $700 to Werner Horn, who was arrested in connection with the blowing up of a Canadian Pacific railway bridge at St. Croix, Maine. The day before this check was issued the German embassy paid $2,000 into Captain Von Papan's account.

Another check stub shows that about two weeks before the explosion in Seattle on May 30, 1915, Captain Von Papen sent $500 to the German consulate at Seattle. In February of 1915 he sent $1,300 to the German consulate in that city.

Hope for Day of Reckoning.
The following four letters found among Captain Von Papan's effects were considered the most interesting part of the correspondence turned over to the American embassy. The first is a letter from R. von Meyenbug, German consul at New Orleans, to Captain Von Papan. The letter follows:—Dear Herr von Papan: I read with great respect that the fate of recall has indeed overcome you. I don't suppose that you are very unhappy to be able to shake the dust of this unfriendly country from off your feet. What chiefly offends me is that in always giving way to the government here we have never found that they are kindly disposed toward us. That the demand for the recall has been so sudden and helated throws an interesting light upon the government here. May here also the day of reckoning come and our government find again that iron determination with which alone one can make an impression here.

"Hoping that our connection formed in this great time will not come to an end with your departure, I am,
"Yours sincerely,
"R. V. M."

President "Talked Too Big."

The second letter is from Dr. F. W.
Meyer to Captain Von Papan. It follows, in part:—
"New York, Dec. 19, 1915.—Dear Captain: Best wishes again on the occasion of your departure. I had occasion yesterday to honorably dismiss recent events with some German.
The Austrian note is, of course, a matter for general quiet enjoyment and the whole business can scarcely be taken tragically. The president this time has talked a bit too big even for those who blindly support him. But we were all of the opinion that the departure of you and your colleague is a serious loss for us. Though a majority of these present has scarcely had an opportunity of knowing you personally a privilege which has been a great pleasure to me, yet your efforts have always been especially spoken of and more perhaps than you think. I think, therefore, I am speaking in the name of all of us I express to you the thanks of all of us for your faithful vigilance and unremitting labors under the most difficult circumstances and to this I add my own special thanks for your attention to my little proposals.

"It is not surprising, in view of the fictitious neutrality of the president, that the end should have been put to your work and you must carry back with you the knowledge that you have done your duty according to the best of your ability as long as it was possible. Our people will never forget this of you.

"I will gladly comply with your proposal to send a line from time to time and it would be very pleasant for me to receive one from you especially if by proposals you mean such as could be discussed with some gentlemen of the German house of Columbia university. I am keeping an eye on the matter especially mentioned.

"With best wishes,
"Yours,
"DR. F. W. MEYER."

Hoped to Change Sentiment.

The third letter was written by Gen.
Friedrich A. J. von Bernhardt. It follows:—
"Posen General Headquarters, 9-15.
—Dear Captain: I beg to thank you most sincerely for your kindness in sending me a copy of the New York Sun containing my two articles. I am glad to hear these articles will, in your opinion, have a good effect as far as that is at all possible in America. The advertising manner in which they publish things is, of course, thoroughly American. A private communication of mine has been printed without any authority from me. I have now written two further series of articles for America. The foreign office wanted to have the first of these, entitled "Germany and England," distributed in the American press and the other entitled "Pan-Germanism," was to appear in the Chicago Tribune.

"I should be very grateful if you could forward me one copy each of these articles. They will certainly have some sort of effect. This is evident from the inexpressible rage with which the British press have attacked these two Sun articles. They have in-

UNCLE SAM HAS MONSTER GUNS TO DEFEND THE PANAMA CANAL

Two of the big guns defending the Panama Canal, and interior of shrapnel shell containing 252 lead bolts. Some of the biggest guns in the world, shooting a distance of over twenty miles are being taken to Panama where they will defend the canal. At the right of the picture is shown one of the huge shells used by these guns. This particular shell contains 252 lead bolts.

SIXTEEN INCH GUNS RECOMMENDED FOR NEW SHIPS

By The Associated Press.
Washington, Jan. 14.—Main batteries of ten 16-inch guns each, the greatest practicable speed and a cruising radius of at least 10,000 miles are the general characteristics urged by the navy general board for the two new superdreadnoughts congress has been asked to authorize this year.

It was learned tonight that the board proposes that the ships could cost $18-600,000 each, displace 35,000 tons and have the highest speed attainable without sacrifice to armament, armor or fuel capacity.

It would then have them represent a 25 per cent increase in gun power and endurance over any American battleship afloat or authorized, and carry the biggest guns ever placed aboard a fighting ship of any power.

Indications at the navy department, however, are that adherence to the 32,000 ton ship of the California class finally will be decided upon by Secretary Daniels, although the estimates already before congress are based on the larger craft. Opinions differ among Mr. Daniels' advisers as to the advisability of increasing the size of battleships, because of many limitations of yard facilities and channel depth.

Some officers believe also that the power of individual guns should not be increased at the expense of the total number of big guns carried. The California and similar ships will carry twelve 14-inch guns.

It has been figured out by experts who favor the 14-inch weapon for future ships that a twelve-gun ship will average 75 per cent more hits than an eight-gun vessel. The only advantage of the bigger gun, they say, is at ranges in excess of 15,000 yards, and not recommended as to the battle in the North Sea in which the German battle cruiser was sunk shows that only 1 per cent of hits was scored by either fleet. The fight was fought at from 15,000 to 20,000 yards and the German ships did much damage to the British ships.

The general board reached its conclusion on the necessity of bigger battleships after a study of events abroad.
The reasons for raising the cruising radius from 8,000 miles as in the California class to 10,000 have not been disclosed, but probably had to do with the great distances of the Pacific ocean.

The board did not recommend any specific speed to be reached, advising merely that the twenty-one knot gait of the present line ships should be increased as much as possible without reducing the armament, armor or fuel capacity.

Carranza Wants to Send Cavalry Troops Over American Soil

By The Associated Press.
Douglas, Ariz., Jan. 14.—Permission to send 600 cavalry troops through American territory from Cananea, Sonora, to Juarez, opposite El Paso, has been requested by Carranza authorities, according to an announcement tonight at Agua Prieta, the Mexican town opposite here.

The cavalrymen are to be used in the campaign against Villa bandits in western Chihuahua it was stated.

Those indicted were Edward Weber, a cousin of Albert Weber, an official of the Deutsche Bank in Berlin; Paul Schmidt, Weber's partner in the Rubber and Guayule Agency of this city; Max Jaeger, a German maker of automobile accessories; Mrs. Annie Dek-kers, a native of Holland, and Richard Wohlbeg, a naturalized citizen who operates a rubber and cement factory here.

The Guayule agency is also made a defendant.

Assistant United States Attorney Harold Content says Mrs. Dekkers was to have been the go-between. Her sex and the fact that she had been in the habit of making frequent trans-Atlantic trips were relied upon to protect her from suspicion. The rubber was to be carried by her as personal baggage.

Four and a half tons of rubber were obtained by the alleged conspirators, according to Mr. Content before the first attempt at shipment was made. On November 27, Mrs. Dekkers took passage on the Holland-American liner Ryndam, bound for Rotterdam. She had four trunks and eight packing cases filled with rubber, but which was marked personal baggage. Acting on information given the customs authorities by British agents, Mrs.
Dekkers' baggage was held up and she was not permitted to sail.

The matter was referred to United States Attorney Marshall who laid the matter before the grand jury.

The defendants will be arraigned in the federal district court next Monday.

Albert Salomon, an importer, Sigmund Karmann of Budapest and Albert B. Newman of Brooklyn pleaded guilty in federal district court last November to an indictment charging them with engaging in a conspiracy to import $100,000 worth of rubber into Germany by means of false manifests describing the shipment as cotton waste and resin. Each was fined $500 by Judge Hunt.

FIVE INDICTMENTS CHARGE CONSPIRING TO SHIP RUBBER

By The Associated Press.
New York, Jan. 14.—Four men and a woman were indicted today by a federal grand jury on a charge of conspiring to violate the customs laws of the United States by shipping contraband rubber to Germany.

Those indicted were Edward Weber,
a cousin of Albert Weber, an official
of the Deutsche Bank in Berlin; Paul Schmidt, Weber's partner in the Rubber and Guayule Agency of this city;

Execution of Rodriguez Confirmed and Protection Is Asked for Mor-

By The Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 14.—General Carranza and the de facto government of Mexico are to be given full opportunity without intervention from the United States, to run to earth the murderers of American citizens at Santa Ysabel and to demonstrate the ability to restore order and protect foreign rights in the southern republic.
This was the outstanding fact here tonight after a meeting of the cabinet, a conference between President Wilson and Chairman Stone of the foreign relations committee and another day of stirring debate in the senate chamber.

The president, supported by his cabinet and the democratic leaders in congress, is determined that the American government shall not be stampeded by war talk and cries of vengeance into rushing an army across the Rio Grande to destroy in its infancy the de facto government.

In the senate, administration leaders calmly outlined the position of the government in the face of denunciation from the republican side and another resolution directing intervention, proposed by Senator Works of California. At the state department officials awaited word from General Carranza in reply to the demand made upon him to seek out and punish the bandit murderers.

Troops Already Sent.

While no direct communication from General Carranza had reached the state department tonight, a message from him to Silas Arredondo, the Mexican ambassador-designate, announced the dispatch of troops to combat the outlaws and his purpose to visit "condign punishment upon every participant in the massacre."

This message was regarded at the state department as an indication of the character of the formal reply to Secretary Lansing's representations which is expected not later than tomorrow.

The Mexican embassy was without other advice regarding the bandit hunt. General Obregon was said to be at Queretaro, where he had been summoned for a general conference and it was regarded as likely that he would remain there, the work of riding down the Villa forces about Chihuahua being left in the hands of Generals Gavira and Trevino.

Measures to facilitate the removal of Americans from districts where they lived in the neighborhood of republicans were discussed by department officials with Mr. Arredondo who later advised General Carranza by telegraph that every assistance be given such Americans as could be provided to accompany them into cities where strong garrisons are maintained. He went further, recommending that in cases where foreigners objected to leaving, that they be forcibly removed to points of safety.

Many Americans Staying.

That large numbers of Americans are leaving Northern Mexico was reported to the department but it is estimated that not counting the members of a Mormon colony at Casas Grandes, there still are at Parral, Dirango, Madera and other districts where control by Carranza is doubtful, more than 300. That the majority of these may remain in spite of warnings is feared.

When Secretary Lansing was asked whether the United States government would protect its citizens under such circumstances he replied that it would do so "to the best of his ability," but that in such cases the government would not be induced "to use force where people are unharmful."

He compared the situation in Mexico with that in Europe at the beginning of the war when Americans were ordered out.

Debate in Senate.

Debate in the senate brought out the positive declarations from Senator Stone and Senator Lewis of Illinois that there would be no countenancing of the demands of republican leaders for intervention with insincerity of purpose and seeking to make a political issue. Senator Stone, after his conference with President Wilson, declared that intervention in Mexico at this time would be monstrous, in the fact of the fact that the United States had just recognized Carranza. He declared that to intervene would be playing into the hands of Villa and Zapata, who sought for purposes of revenge, to make trouble between Carranza and the United States.

Senator Lewis insisted the republicans, despairing of any other political issue, sought to make Mexico a paramount issue, but would fail.

To intervene in Mexico, he asserted, would be an act of aggression against the United States and destroy the diplomatic achievements of the administration with European belligerents.

Fail Bitter Again.

Senator Fall, republican, assailed the administration and bitterly attacked Carranza, declaring that even Senator Stone would be amazed at his recognition by the United States. He declared that the Brazilian minister formerly in Mexico City, regarding Carranza outrages, Senator Lodge observed during the debate that the war of April 3, 1914, against Huerta had been successfully terminated "inasmuch as Mr. Huerta had just died in jail."

Senator Stone tonight said the foreign

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 14.—Three of the victims of the Santa Ysabel, Mexico, massacre, Thomas Evans, M. B. Romero and J. H. Woon, were interred today without demonstration on the part of the Americans whose threats against Mexicans led to the establishment of a military patrol in the city last night.

Fifty-two Americans, including a number of women and children, arrived here tonight at 7:15 o'clock from Chihuahua City, the region where the alleged Villa bandits slaughtered the foreigners last Monday.

More than 150 Americans still remain in what is considered the danger zone but it is hoped these will reach American territory shortly aboard a special train sent out from El Paso last night and which, according to advices received by United States officials, arrived at Parral tonight. The refugees who arrived tonight said the special train passed through Chihuahua City this morning.

Reports were current here that incendiary posters were being circulated in Juarez declaring that several Mexicans had been killed in the brawls that attended last night's demonstrations here. Mexican consular officials declared they could find none of the posters.

Mexicans on Streets Again.

Mexicans who, for the sake of safety, were required to stay within doors last night during the demonstrations, resulting from the murder of the Americans by Villa bandits at Madera last Monday, reappeared on the streets today in numbers. Many of them, members of the "Cientifico" element, showed themselves at the bier of General Victoriano Huerta, the former dictator of their country, who died last night, the prisoner of the American government.

Plans for a mass meeting here by Americans to discuss the situation were cancelled today on the orders of Mayor Tom Lea. It being decided that no meeting would be held until trainees sent south to bring Americans out of Mexico arrived safely on the American side of the border.

Confirmation of reports of the execution of Gen. Jose Rodriguez by Carranza's forces was received today coupled with the statement that his body would be brought to Juarez for verification by Americans of the action of the Carranza government.

Trevino After Bandits.

Mail advices from Torreón brought details of the occupation of Gomez Palacio by the united commands of Calisto Contreras, Canuto Reyes and Pedro Moreno and other advices were received that General Arguendo had reached a point near Bermillo. This was not confirmed. The same source reported the Laguna district in the hands of anti-Carranza forces.

An official report from Gen. Jacinto Trevino said bands of Villa bandits would be exterminated wherever found.

While the Carranza consul here stated that no armed force would be permitted to enter Mexico to aid in the extermination of Villa bandits, it was rumored that such a movement is being organized along the border.

Huerta Funeral Held.

General Huerta's body, garbed in the showy uniform of a Mexican general, was placed temporarily in a vault here late today.

Members of the family and former officials of the Mexican army followed the flag-draped casket to Concordia cemetery where brief services were conducted by the Rev. Father Carlos Mayer. It is planned to remove the body to Mexico City after peace is restored, in compliance with the general's dying request.

At the same time it was stated that no request for permission to take the general's body to Mexico City had been made to Venustiano Carranza, first chief of the recognized government of Mexico, through any of his agents here or at Juarez.

During the greater part of the day the body of Huerta lay in state in the house, on a side street, which had been occupied by his family and retinue while he was a prisoner of the United States at Fort Bliss, on suspicion that he was planning a new revolt in Mexico. His casket was draped in the Mexican flag and upon it lay his jeweled sword, a gold faced chapeau he had worn on state occasions and the gem-set stars and orders that bedecked his breast as the head for a time of the Mexican nation.

Candles burned at the head of the casket behind which two of his former military staff acted as guard of honor, while all around sat weeping women garbed in black.

Mayor Tom Lea, who was Huerta's

REPORT IS QUOTED BY VON BERNSTORFF

GERMAN AMBASSADOR DOES NOT BELIEVE PAPERS WERE FOUND ON VON PAPAN.

All Knowledge of Payments to Werner Horn Disclaimed at Embassy Office.

By the Associated Press.
Washington, Jan. 14.—When Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, was shown London dispatches tonight telling of the correspondence and counts taken from Capt. von Papan, the former German military attaché here, his comment was, "I don't believe it."

Further than that the ambassador declined to be quoted for publication. He did make it plain, however, that he doubted any documents of an incriminating nature had been taken from him. The impression which was conveyed to questioners by officials in German diplomatic circles was that the London dispatches had been connected with him.

The impression which was conveyed to questioners by officials in German diplomatic circles was that the London dispatches had been connected with him.

They recalled that when the British officials at Falmouth searched Von Papan's personal effects, the contents of the American Ambassador's office in London. Tonight the German officials declared that had the captain carried the papers described they thought it unlikely that he would have called further attention to them by protesting to an American official.

At the embassy tonight it was said that the ambassador from time to time had paid much money to Captain von Papan in the way of salary and for the expenses of such work as he was expected to conduct as a military attaché. The embassy, it was said, had no knowledge of his private bank account or of how he disbursed his money.

Embassy officials specifically disclaimed any knowledge of the reported payment of $700 to Werner Horn, connected with the attempted destruction of a Canadian Pacific bridge. They further disclaimed any knowledge of the explosion referred to as having occurred in Seattle, or of Kueferle, the Brooklyn man who several months ago was connected with an American passport and while on trial as a spy committed suicide in the Tower of London.

The development aroused the deepest interest everywhere in official Washington when the recall of Von Papan and his colleague, Captain Boy-Ed, the German naval attaché, was asked, the German foreign office was inclined to seek a bill of particulars.

After some negotiations Secretary Lansing replied that the request for withdrawal of the officers was based solely on their military and naval activities, which had destroyed their usefulness in this country.

Exactly what evidence the state department has of the activities of the two German officers never has been disclosed. The investigations of the department of justice have not been made public, and the official circles here have been plain that this course was followed because the U. S. was reluctant to communicate the delicate state of relations with Germany over the submarine warfare negotiations by any move which might further inflame public opinion in Germany or this country.

Alleged misuse of American passports, Captain von Papan's connection in the correspondence of Dr. Dumba, the recalled Austrian ambassador, and various allegations of connection in some degree of German officials in alleged plots to foment strikes in munition plants here, were the most prominently factors in the desire of the United States to have the two attaches withdrawn.

Administration officials made no comment on the development and they also were silent as to the expressions contained in the published letters written at Washington by Von Papan to the German consul.

Jury Saw Movie; New Trial Sought

By the Associated Press.
St. Louis, Jan. 14.—The reversal of the convictions of Jack and Joe Davis, Buck Burdett and Bob Waltham, found guilty in the federal court at Muskogee, Okla., of robbing a train near Muskogee on Oct. 28, and thus delaying mail, was sought in the federal circuit court of appeals here today. The ground that the jury was allowed to attend a moving picture show at which a stage robbery was shown at the trial was claimed by attorneys for the convicted men, tended to prejudice the jury.

LETTERS TAKEN BY BRITISH INTERESTING

sulted me in the most incredible way. However, I agree with you that military success will be a decisive factor for opinion in America. But also every continental to force in American trade will not fail to have a certain effect. I hope both will take effect together. I think, however, that especially in the west, where I expect there will soon be a big attempt to break through, we have serious and difficult times to look forward to, but I confidently believe that we shall successfully overcome them.

"With best wishes, etc."

"BERNHARDT"
The fourth is a letter from Dr. Albert. It follows in part:
"San Francisco (no date).—Dear Herr von Papan: Thank you for the telegram which my home is small. For this time I suppose matters will move more quickly than in the Dumba case. I wonder whether our government will respond in suitable manner. The 'patron' also telegraphed that I would continue my journey. We shall not see each for the present. In my opinion it need no longer take public opinion so much into consideration, in spite of its being artificially kept in the air by the press and legal proceedings so that a somewhat stiffer attitude would be desirable, naturally quiet and dignified."

"If you should leave New York before my return, I would like to come to some agreement about some pending questions by writing. You will receive then in Germany a long intended report of expenses paid through my account on your behalf. If you then would support the question of monetary advance which you know of, although I know that I was mistaken in my opinion that I acted as your representative and according to your wishes, I would be very grateful."

The correspondence seized from Captain von Papan and turned over to the American embassy consisted of copies of letters and a summary of bank books and stubs. Later Washington will be supplied with photographic copies.

The explosion that partly wrecked the railroad bridge over the St. Croix river, the international boundary between Maine and New Brunswick, occurred February 2 last. After Horn was arrested in connection with the explosion he was indicted in the federal court in Boston on charges that he transported explosives on passenger trains for the attempted destruction of the bridge. He was taken to Boston for trial, but refused to plead and filed an appeal from the decision, demanding his release on a habeas corpus writ on the ground that his extradition from Maine was not valid. An application for his extradition from the United States to Canada was filed by the British government, but was granted. The appeal in the Boston case still is pending. Horn was found to be a German reservist.

Anton Kueferle, who claimed to be a naturalized American citizen, living at one time in Brooklyn, sailed from New York for Liverpool last February and shortly afterward was arrested in London on the charge of writing a letter to an address in a neutral country in Europe giving valuable facts regarding the military dispositions in progress he committed suicide in a British prison.

Dr. Mueller Makes Explanation.

By the Associated Press.
Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 14.—Dr. Wilhelm Mueller, former German consul at Seattle and now consul here, stated today that he had received money from time to time from the German embassy at Washington, and that he had from Von Papan, but declared that such money was used for enabling German subjects to go from Seattle to New York, "on the chance that they might return to Germany."

The consul's statement was made when he was shown London dispatches saying that papers taken from Capt. Franz von Papan, recalled German military attaché of the German embassy at Washington, showed Von Papan had sent $500 to the German consulate at Seattle about two weeks before an explosion at Seattle, on May 30 last.

"Any intimation that I was connected with any explosion in Seattle is absolutely untrue," he declared, accompanying the statement with gestures which shook the bed to which a dislocated kneecap had confined him. A fall last Sunday caused the injured knee.

"Do not recall that I received any specific sum from Von Papan," Dr. Mueller said, "but I often furnished money to Germans who wanted to go to New York upon the chance that they might return to Germany. I was reimbursed by the German embassy at Washington and possibly from Von Papan himself on behalf of the embassy."

At the consul's office before he could be reached at his home, a similar explanation to this had been made regarding money received at Seattle from German officials in Washington. Dr. Mueller was consul at Seattle from February to June, 1915, he said.

How Soldiers Keep Strong

Preparedness against sickness is the big, important thing to fighting soldiers. A sick soldier cannot work with vigor any more than you can work with energy when you are weak, tired, almost sick.

One efficient warring government is giving each soldier a vial of cod liver oil every day because far-reaching experiments show how wonderfully it increases the calories of human energy and gives them strength to prevent winter sickness. Is this not convincing proof that you need it at this season to enliven your blood to prevent sickness?

Cod liver oil is scarce and high-priced this season and many inferior grades may be offered. But remember that which guarantees pure cod liver oil—free from alcohol and drugs.

If you are subject to colds, throat or lung troubles; if you are easily tired, run-down or have thin blood, you should take Scott's Emulsion at once. If your children are backward in growth, frail or anæmic, nothing will do them so much good as Scott's Emulsion, and for girls and women in home or business it is nature's great strength-builder.

Scott's is not a "secret" medicine. It is a rich blood-food and a pure tonic; it contains nothing harmful and is pleasant to take. It is prescribed by physicians and liberally used in hospitals and private schools.

One bottle may prevent a sickness. At any drug store—Start it to-day.

Imitations are sometimes offered but this Trade-Mark has stood for supreme quality for the past forty years.

ALWAYS INSIST ON SCOTT'S.

attorney, was one of the half dozen Americans who passed before the casket for a last look at the man who refused to salute the United States flag during the battle of Vera Cruz which cost the lives of twenty American sailors and marines.

Train Reaches Border.

The train which reached here tonight bearing the refugees also brought two American soldiers in uniform who were picked up by members of the Carranza train guard eighteen miles south of the border. Gen. Gabriel Garcia, commandant at Juarez, said he would turn the soldiers over to an American officer tomorrow. They disappeared last Sunday and tonight could say only that they did not know how they got into Mexico, where United States soldiers, in or out of uniform, are not permitted to go at any time.

The train was met by a party which included General Garcia, the Juarez commandant; Andreas G. Garcia, Carranza consul at El Paso, and Z. L. Cobb, collector of the port of El Paso. Cobb quickly passed the entire party and immigration officials consumed little time in searching for contraband before permitting the train to proceed to this side of the boundary.

Many in ten party left the border only last Saturday in company with Watson and the other Americans killed by the bandits at Santa Isabel last Monday.

All the employees of the American Smelting and Refining company from the Chihuahua smelter and the company of the El Potosi smelter came on the train, as well as a score of men, women and children, foreign residents of Chihuahua City.

Few Troops at Chihuahua.

The scarcity of troops at the Chihuahua state capital was confirmed by the arrivals, who said that about 250 men was about the total of the Carranza forces there. On January 10, the day of the reported battle at Escalon between the forces of Arguedo and the Carranza troops from Chihuahua City, it was reported troops had moved out of the capital to the south.

American Consul Thomas D. Edwards of Juarez made representations today to General Garcia, commandant at Juarez, to the effect that the state department desired him to afford protection to the Mormon colonies of the Casas Grandes district in Chihuahua state.

Consent attempts have been made by Consul Edwards to induce the Mormons, consisting of 100 men and about 400 women and children, to come to the border, but without avail. At present there are said to be about 100 Carranza soldiers at Casas Grandes.

Irritation was manifested in the Mexican town of Juarez, opposite here, tonight as a result of the rioting in El Paso last night. Americans were not permitted to cross the international boundary. Several were ordered off tram cars bound for that place.

relations committee would not meet until next week, when President Wilson is expected to return. Information regarding the recognition of the Carranza government requested in Senator Falls' resolution.

The reported threat a group of Americans at El Paso to enter Mexico with a military organization of their own apparently is not taken seriously by the state department. Secretary Lansing said that in such a case the responsibility would be up to the department of justice and the military, but he intimated that such a movement, since it would be a violation of the neutrality laws, would be checked.

Charges made by citizens of El Paso against American Consul Edwards of Juarez, were received during the day. Mr. Lansing said he saw "no necessity of replying."

EMPEROR NICHOLAS WILL NOT MAKE PEACE

RUSSIAN RULER TELLS SOLDIERS TERMS WILL COME WHEN SUCCESS ASSURED.

Only by Consent of Allies Will War Be Ended, Officers Are Informed.

By the Associated Press.

Petrograd, Jan. 14.—"Rest assured, as I said at the beginning of the war, I will not make peace before we have forced the last of the enemy out of the limits of the mother country and not otherwise than with the consent of our allies, to whom we are bound not by paper but by a sincere friendship and the tie of blood."

Emperor Nicholas, in these words, addressed to one of his armies on the Russian western front during the week preceding the Russian Christmas, once more our allies, to whom we are bound not by paper but by a sincere friendship and the tie of blood."

The emperor, after visiting the army on the southern front, reviewed those of the forces of the west. The imperial train stopped at Seasmire on the Alexandrovsky railway. The emperor rode in an automobile accompanied by General Evert to a field where reserves were on parade.

The troops passed in review before the emperor, who was mounted on a big bay horse, the various companies shouting a salute in unison as they passed. All took places beside the emperor and after the review he consulted with each officer separately, asked questions and generally interested himself in their personal and official welfare. The emperor then addressed the officers, saying:

"I speak to you, most heroic representatives of our army, wishing deeply and sincerely to thank you for your mighty valor and heroic efforts in the present campaign. I beg you to pass to your men my words, thanking them also for the heavy strain they manfully endured, which all Russia and I personally value."

Emperor Nicholas gave his assurance that he would not make a separate peace and afterward again rode in front of his troops.

Addressing the troops, General Evert called for cheers for the emperor, saying: "For the highest welfare of our national leader, our dearly beloved emperor, hurrah."

Cheering continued long after the emperor had dismounted and departed from the field in his motor car. The following day Emperor Nicholas inspected the army corps commanded by General Kourapatkin, the hero of the Japanese war.

PARCEL POST MARKETING.

The farmer who wishes to sell his products by parcel post, and the housewife who wishes to use this method of securing country produce for her table will find many useful points in farmers' bulletin 703, "Suggestions for Parcel Post Marketing." This bulletin, in addition to explaining the postal rates and measurement limits for parcel post matter, discusses in some detail the types of containers which are most successful and the methods of grading and packing produce, so that it will reach the consumer in good condition, and be attractive in quality and appearance. In treating standards for parcel post shipments, the bulletin tells how to select, handle and pack poultry, and how to grade and pack the various fruits and vegetables which the average farmer is likely to market through the postoffice.

The bulletin points out that one of the common obstacles to establishing parcel post communication between farmer and consumer is that the farmer may be unwilling to offer goods at a price which attracts the customer, or that the consumer may offer a price lower than the farmer can obtain at a local market. To quote the bulletin:

"Not only must the farmer have something additional to the usual price to compensate him for the extra work, container and postage required, but the consumer must also have something to attract him to marketing by parcel post. In determining what the price shall be, both the farm price and the retail price paid by the consumer when he markets in the ordinary way should be taken into consideration. The consumer must receive either a better article at the usual retail price or an article of the grade usually purchased at some concession in price.

"It is probable that the point which will make the strongest appeal to the average consumer is that he can secure by parcel post a fresher, brighter, more attractive, and thus possibly a better product than he can obtain otherwise.

"The average producer, as a rule, does not realize the importance of appearance as a factor in selling goods and frequently is careless and indifferent in preparing produce for market. The consumer, on the other hand, relies very largely upon appearance in selecting food supplies, and unattractive articles are passed by promptly.

"A personal acquaintance should be established between producer and consumer, when they come into business contact. This will help a great deal in furthering parcel post marketing, and also will eliminate many of the misunderstandings which may occur from time to time. A definite understanding should exist as to the duties of each in regard to remittances, claims for damaged or spoiled produce, and the preservation and return of containers."

A special dispatch to the Dallas News and Evening Journal says a movement is on foot in Washington to have Governor Ferguson head the state delegation to the national democratic convention at St. Louis. There are two reasons why this movement should not materialize: First, delegates to political conventions should be made up of laymen rather than officeholders; second, the list of delegates should be made up in Texas and not in Washington.

"Washington recorded two earthquakes Thursday," reads a headline. But we are glad to note that the body of the story informs that the seismic disturbances were 2,700 miles away, for a genuine Texas "Cyclone" ought to be a sufficient visitation of nature's wrath upon the national capitol for one season.

No citizen wants to be a nondescript. No good citizen deliberately wants to fail in his duty by refusing to participate in the affairs of his government, thereby protecting his own rights and promoting his own and his neighbor's welfare.

The great difficulty is that men are indifferent; they become preoccupied with matters of business and other concerns and neglect to go to the polls, or what is equally bad, fail to inform themselves as to men and measures before proceeding to the polls; they fail—many of them do—to participate in conventions which bear a vital part in the nomination of candidates and the formulation of party measures demanding legislation.

But, strange as it may seem at first thought, it is generally the good men—good so far as a question of morals goes—who are most prone, as a class, to neglect their political and civic duty in participating in governmental affairs, and their neglect of duty with the diligence of the bad men—at least men who have special interests to serve in politics—gives the preponderating influence frequently into the control of interests that are not striving for the promotion of the common weal. Then it is that some of the good men who have refused to do their duty exclaim, "Well, what's the use?" and aver that were not politics such a rotten game they would participate in it. But these men never stop to think that if every good man would do his full duty in politics the bad man would never have a chance to get in his crooked work, for the number of good men in this country has always exceeded the number of bad ones.

All sorts and any number of public issues are to be determined in 1916. This will be, perhaps, by reason of the increased number of primary and direct elections, the busiest political year in the history of this country. The presidential campaign—and the people are to participate in a presidential primary for the first time—possibly two elections on the United States senatorship, and a gubernatorial campaign are coming on and the number of important issues that will likely figure in the election of members of the legislature is larger than ever before. The congressional race in this district promises to be highly interesting, while the number of candidates for the county offices will be such as to guarantee an exceedingly lively contest in a number of the races.

And here in the city there will be plenty doing to make things interesting. Many people are calling for new blood at the city hall. The initiative and referendum clause of the city charter will likely be called into play on more questions than the Sunday movies—and only those who have a new poll tax receipt will be eligible to vote on that proposition—and the man who is not provided with a poll tax receipt is going to feel like the man who was found at the wedding feast without a wedding garment and, as a consequence, was cast into the outer darkness where there was weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Sixteen days remain for interviewing the tax collector and two of these are Sundays.

"Get $1.25 worth for $1" is the advice which Mayor Campbell gave the heads of the city departments of Houston when they asked for larger appropriations this year. That sounds very well but will the mayor please accommodate them by showing them how it is done?

"We, as a country, are facing a great world crisis," Theodore Roosevelt advised the progressive committee at Chicago. While we admit the election of Teddy as president would produce a crisis, that direful situation does not appear to be as imminent as he thinks.

Another Oklahoma bank was robbed Wednesday, but in this instance both the robber and the money he got were captured. Evidently, some of the bank officials and officers of the law are living up to their 1916 resolutions to break up the state's favorite game.

We are wondering just how many of those members of congress who are insisting on intervention in Mexico would be willing to vacate their seats, shoulder a gun and go on a man hunt for Villa in case intervention should be resorted to.

Sam Sparks, who began holding public office before he had attained his majority, some of his friends aver, has demonstrated that he can do things in private life, too. He has just been elected president of the Austin Chamber of Commerce.

This cold snap may have caused temporary inconvenience to some people in the state, but as an inoculator of disease germs and a killer of green bugs and boll weevils it was a great blessing to the state.

"Bear killed just outside the city limits of San Antonio," reads a headline. But why go gunning after those bears just outside the city limits and leave those inside the city limits immune?

No Confirmation of Reported Sale Riggins Hotel to Albert Pick

Statement that negotiations for the sale of the Riggins hotel had not reached a definite stage was obtained by the Morning News last night direct from the Mercantile Trust company, St. Louis, owners of the property. The statement which came from J. B. Moberly, head of the real estate department of the company, was in answer to an inquiry endeavoring to confirm rumors current here yesterday that the property had been sold to Albert Pick & Co., of Chicago, who bought the furnishings of the hotel in the recent receiver's sale here. Mr. Moberly was present at the receiver's sale, making the successful bid for his company, and returned to St. Louis several days ago. Thomas Reilly, assistant to Mr. Moberly, who has been in charge of the hotel since his chief's departure, stated last night that he had not been advised that a deal had been closed.

Several conferences held here between Mr. Pick and prominent hotel men of Southwest Texas gave strength to the rumor that the hotel had been sold. Probability that the hotel would be closed was very remote, whether or not the hotel property is sold by the present owners according to the statement last night of Mr. Moberly.

Waco Man in Charge of New Cotton Belt Train

W. A. Turner, Cotton Belt conductor who was elected as secretary of the committee of adjustments of the Order of Railway Conductors at the meeting of that body in Texarkana recently, was again honored by being appointed conductor of the Lone Star Limited, the new fast train to be put into operation tomorrow. This honor comes from the Cotton Belt company and is a recognition and appreciation of duty, faithfully and efficiently performed, by the Waco man.

The position carries with it the highest salary of any conductor of the Cotton Belt system. Mr. Turner reports for duty Monday afternoon, though the train will be put on regular schedule tomorrow. The run of Mr. Turner will be on the Fort Worth-Texarkana division. The new train goes into operation from Fort Worth to Memphis.

Mr. Turner entered the employ of the Cotton Belt in 1888 as brakeman, being promoted with every opportunity on account of his close attention to duty and because of his courtesy and gentlemanly bearing. The election to secretaryship at the Texarkana meeting is an evidence of the esteem and affection of his fellow trainmen and the latter is an evidence of duty, faithfully and efficiently performed, by the Waco man.

Mr. Turner is also connected with the Pipkin-Turner Drug company of this city. For the present, Mr. Turner's family will remain in Waco.

Police Recover Articles Taken from Store at Axtell

As a result of the appeal of the proprietor of the store at Axtell which was burglarized several nights ago for aid to the Waco police force, a quantity of the articles taken have been recovered. The find was made by Chief McNamara and Detective F. A. Craven and a negro is being held in the city in connection with the robbery. As soon as the message came from R. C. Thompson, proprietor of the store at Axtell, Chief McNamara and his department began working on the case and the recovery of some of the goods and the arrest of the negro developed yesterday.

The arrest was made just before noon and some of the clothing and other articles were recovered from a house in Sandtown in the morning. In a house on Riverside drive some more articles were found yesterday afternoon. Two bolts of flannel, thirteen belts, several pairs of overalls, ladies' coat suits, underwear and children's dresses were among the articles found in the raids.

484,000 Gumshoes Pass Through Waco on Way to Dallas

Waco was treated to an unusual sight yesterday when a solid trainload of nineteen cars of tennis shoes was sidetracked here from 12 o'clock noon until 8 o'clock this morning, when they went on their way to Dallas to be distributed from there all over the state. The tennis shoes came to the station by water from the Boston Rubber company, Watertown, Mass., and were consigned to the Graham-Brown Shoe company of Dallas. In the shipment were 242,000 pairs of the noiseless walkers and is the largest single shipment of tennis shoes ever made to one firm. The cars had attractive banners displayed the full length of the cars. The train was carried over the Katy tracks.

Charles Young of Axtell is returned the winner in the weight increase class of awards offered for members of the McLennan County Pig club in the decision of the judges made yesterday. The prize for the greatest increase in weight, the "efficiency test" of the boy pig growers, was $25, the winner's pig showing a gain of 1.16 pounds a day. Prize of $12.50 for the largest number of pigs in a litter went to Robbie Evans Collier with nine. Other prizes awarded are shown above.

Under the slogan of "A Pig for Every Boy," the McLennan County Boys' Pig club was founded by E. F. Drake, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Drake has devoted a great deal of time and energy to the management of the club, and is highly pleased with the success of the first year as shown in the report of the judges, who were T. C. Westbrook, John Dollins and James Hays Quarles. Mr. Drake's plan has received wide publicity throughout the country by means of articles and comment in farm and other publications, and has been patterned after in other parts of the country. Adoption of the plan by communities all over the country is being advocated through the extension department of the International Harvester company, who after investigating the plan have made it a part of their work.

Judges Indorse Plan.

High indorsement of Mr. Drake's work is given in the report of the judges, who made the awards yesterday. The report with the accompanying explanations is as follows:

"We, T. C. Westbrook, stock farmer; John Dollins, butcher, and James Hays Quarles, editor, appointed by Ed F. Drake to decide the winners in the pig producing contest, have gone carefully over the reports that have been made by the boys producing and raising pigs. There were two classes of prizes. S. S. Fleming offered $45 to be divided between the boys who had the heaviest weight pigs January 1, 1916, and the boy who had the greatest gain in weight during the year. The famous department store offered $25 to be divided in three prizes for the best litters of pigs, numbers and weight, age of litters being considered. "When we had any idea of the work of each of the boys to determine those who have had the best results."

"For instance, when we began to cast up those who brought the heaviest weight pigs, we were forced to take into consideration the weight of the pig when delivered to the boy, the number of days the pig was cared for by the gain in weight, and then to compute the gain per pig per day. This we have done, and the boy who produced the most weight per day stands highest in the prize list."

Judge Sleeper Talks to Boys of High School Club

The first of a series of vocational talks to members of the high school club was delivered last night by Judge Wm. Sleeper, who spoke to the boys on the subject, "Law a Life Work." To be a successful lawyer, Judge Sleeper told the boys that they would have to give a number of years in preparation and be willing to work early and late and unless a fellow had a great desire to study law he would not be successful. Another quality that was very essential, said Judge Sleeper, was to have a high ideal and be willing to work to it.

William Baine, president of the club, announced that the speaker for the coming week would be City Attorney John Maxwell, and that all the boys who were checking the different list should give special thought to the meeting next week as Mr. Maxwell always brings a message.

The banquet served for the boys last night was in charge of Mesdames T. S. Montgomery, R. L. Bisele and L. R. Stanfield, the menu consisted of meat loaf, brown gravy, hot rolls, creamed rice, ice cream and vanilla wafers.

Those present were Orvis Russell, Wilford Dutton, William Sleeper, Clyde Omer, Ward Dutton, Olen Ham, Alton Albert Pickett, Ross Wood, Grady Fields, Alfred Daniels, Don Haynes, Joe Scudder, Oscar Tabb, Henry Prinzing, J. G. Willard, A. J. Flowers, Russ McCrackin, J. W. Burn Knebel, Bryan Hightower, Marshall Thompson, Frank Peyton, Frank Trau, L. R. Stanfield, W. M. Sleeper, W. D. Blair, Dan Kelly, Layton Downs, H. Human Fly Will Scale Court House Tomorrow

To demonstrate his facility toward climbing sheer walls, Grover C. Alldridge, professional steeple-jack, will scale the walls of the McLennan county court house at noon tomorrow. Alldridge who yesterday painted the flag pole on the Amicable building, was denied permission to attempt to climb Waco's tallest building from the outside. Alldridge is absolutely confident of his ability to scale the building and expressed great disappointment that he was denied permission to try. He plans tomorrow's exhibition as a matter of professional pride and as an answer to doubt expressed as to his ability to protect his neck while climbing sheer walls. Permission to Alldridge to essay the court house was granted yesterday by Commissioner S. N. Smith.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD BANISH RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism Due to Bad Blood. S. S. S. Your Remedy

Thousands have been made well. People in the poorest health, suffering from Rheumatism, with whom pain was constant. Who believed that their vitality was sapped beyond repair. It was proven to them that the cause of their trouble was the blood; that Uric Acid, the most faithful ally of Rheumatism, had gripped them. The poison in the blood had sapped its strength. The weakened blood had allowed poison and impurities to accumulate, and all energy was gone. They felt "poorly," were listless, pain was ever present, with poor digestion and dyspepsia. They tried S. S. S.—nature's blood tonic. They gave up drugs. This compound of nature's remedies of roots and herbs did what drugs failed to do. It literally washed the blood free from poison, and with the flow of pure blood came back health, strength, vigor and happiness. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. Insist upon S. S. S. If yours is a long standing case, write for special advice to Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga., but begin taking S. S. S. at once.

HIPPODROME.

"A Parisian Romance."

Baron Chevalier (H. Cooper Cliffe) is a wealthy Parisian, a fop, a prematurely aged roue, in the new Fox play at the Hippodrome today. His whole interest in life centers in woman, or rather women, for his list of conquests is large. No member of the opposite sex who comes under the baron's eyes escapes before he praises her charms, weighs them with those of others and catalogues them in the recesses of his depraved brain. It is his hobby in life, his vocation and his avocation, this censoring of feminine loveliness.

Rosa (Dorothy Greene), the incomparable dancer of the opera Comique, comes to the notice of Chevalier. He pays homage to her beauty by establishing her in the most luxurious quarters and by lavishing upon her the major part of his inexhaustible income. Rosa toys with the baron with feine cunning. His liberty extends only to the end of her downy paw, nor is the paw always downy. In moments of caprice it falls with untempered force.

Henri de Targy and Therese Beauchamp, the son and the daughter of business partners, are in love. The elder de Targy robs his partner in business. Beauchamp, Sr., reduced to poverty, casts about for means by which to rehabilitate his fortunes. He is approached by Baron Chevalier, who desires to marry Therese. There, despite her protests, is given in marriage to the old debauchee. Henri de Targy marries Marcelle, a frivolous young creature who aspires to be an opera singer.

Baron Chevalier, even after his marriage, continues his relations with Rosa, the dancer. While he does not openly flaunt the relationship in the face of his wife, Therese, he makes no effort to conceal it. And then a new woman enters his life; she is Marcelle, wife of Henri de Targy. De Targy is serving as Chevalier's secretary. Chevalier directs his attention to the conquest of Marcelle. She rebuffs him. Her attitude, however, is not the result of moral scruples, for she elopes soon after with Julian, an opera tenor.

CHARTER COMMITTEE WOULD PREVENT USE OF PARK OF CITY

INDIVIDUALS AND CORPORATIONS ABUSING PRIVILEGE, IS CLAIMED.

No bonds shall be issued or money expended to buy property for any individual, individuals or corporation according to a report which was adopted last night by the charter committee. This decision came after a spirited debate by different members of the committee in which those in favor of the ruling claimed that individuals and corporations were abusing the privilege of the use of the parks and other grounds owned by the city government.

The bonding limit of the city was fixed at ten per cent of the assessed taxable values of the property within the city by the committee. The bonds shall come in divisions of four, giving one per cent for the first issuance, six per cent for the second, three per cent for the third, and one per cent of the assessment value was voted as a fund with which to build a sewage disposal plant. The assessment of city property is something over $26,000,000, netting to the government over $3,600,000 and giving to the sewage disposal plant over $560,000. This amount in the judgment of competent engineers will completely equip the plant, build the station and all necessary parts of a modern equipped disposal plant.

The report of the committee on taxation was adopted as submitted and before outlined in the News with the single amendment reducing the penalty from ten per cent to five per cent on over-due taxes. The over-due ad valorem taxes will bear interest of six per cent after December 1 and the penalty will be attached when over-due at March 1. The report adopted carries the provision of semi-annual payment of taxes, due in June and October.

The report of the committee on suggestion of officers to compose the board of health was adopted, carrying with it a provision for a city health officer, who shall be an experienced physician with degree of doctor of medicine from some reputable college. He shall have been a practicing physician at the time of his appointment and shall give his entire time to the duties of city health officer. The city health officer shall be appointed by the city commission and upon assuming his duties shall be chairman of the city board of health. As his assistants he shall be aided by four practicing physicians and the commission of public health and the school physician appointed by the trustees of the public schools. This body shall compose the board of health and shall hold stated meetings twice each month. The physicians of the board, other than the city physician, shall receive as a fee $5 for each stated meeting. The city physician shall receive a stipulated salary fixed by the city commission. This board shall have the authority to appoint a city chemist and bacteriologist and a city veterinarian and food inspector and one or more sanitary inspectors. The city commission shall determine the number of appointees and the pay of each and provide for this payment. The city commission shall have the power to pass and enforce necessary ordinances and to fix penalties for all violations of the public health ordinances.

The report of the boundary committee was referred back for further light on the report submitted at the last meeting and for the purpose of having a large number present when the report next comes up for discussion. The committee held that this report was important to the city as a whole and that it was the duty of each member to be present when the question finally comes up for passage.

What to Do for Itching Skins

Eczema, ringworm and other itching, burning skin eruptions are so easily made worse by improper treatment that one has to be very careful. There is one method, however, that you need not hesitate to use, even on a delicate and tender skin—that is, the Resinol treatment. Resinol is the prescription of a Baltimore doctor, put up in the form of Resinol ointment and Resinol soap. This proved so remarkably successful, that thousands of other physicians have prescribed it constantly for over twenty years.

Resinol usually stops itching instantly, healing the eruption quickly, unless it is due to some serious internal disorder. Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap can be bought at any drugist's, and are not at all expensive. Write for free sample, Dept. 6-S, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.
